Kimball Jenkins’ spring exhibition features a curation by Yasamin Safarzadeh which will challenge and defy the norms of gallery exhibitions in New Hampshire. This highly anticipated exhibit features artists from across the country. Each artist is an integral component of the fabric of their community, their mentorship, grace, perseverance, insight and innovations are a testament to the ways in which art can be used as a vessel for change and resistance.

Celebrate this once in a lifetime conglomerate of performance, immersion, exhibition, ambition and rock stardom on April 22 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Kimball Jenkins in Concord. Live performances by Cozy Throne, Gemma Soldati, Obscura Freakshow and a special live tattoo installation by friends from New Inland Tattoo. Be sure to secure your spot on our auction list in order to be tattooed at the event with a flash design from all my friends are in This show artists. Brilliantly catered by Miriam Rohini of The Broken Spoon. Artists include Amber Nicole Cannan, David Roy, Laurel Paley, Ara Tamzarian, Richard Tango-Lowy, Michele Jaquis, Positive Street Art, Juliet Madsen, Dei Xhrist, Austin Fredrickson, Richella Simard, Shyla Hazen, Zahirah Nur Truth, Beth Ann Miller, Ann Kinne, Eliza Carmen, Kimball Jenkins Ceramics Department, Tina Jo.

Through the featuring of such considered, diverse, and well informed work, Kimball Jenkins provides space for the audience to be inspired and think of artistic expression as more than two dimensional representation of forms, but as a means to engage with the people in their community, and dynamically express multifarious insights.

all my friends are in This show will run from April 20 to July 7. Varied gallery hours are offered weekly and can be found by visiting the Kimball Jenkins website. There is no cost to visit and engage with the galleries.
Unmasked
Paul Holes
(288 pages, true crime, 2022)
Part memoir, part true crime documentary in written form, Paul Holes recollects his life entrenched in the dark details of many of America’s cold cases. He is best known for being instrumental in the identification of the Golden State Killer, one of the nation’s most notorious serial killers. There is a very good chance that case would remain unsolved to this day if not for Holes’ obsessive refusal to give up the chase. Throughout the book, Holes provides a fascinating introduction into forensics and how the processes and tools used in an investigation are ever-evolving and becoming more sophisticated. Interestingly, he was one of the pioneers of using DNA and genealogy data to solve crimes. Now, this information is used regularly in crime analysis.

This book, while fascinating, is certainly not for the squeamish. Holes dives into numerous grisly details of the many heartrending cases he’s worked over the years, so if these specifics bother you, “Unmasked” might not be the book for you. To me, these details are important to understand the scope of Holes’ work and how it has affected him.

With his keen intellect and unceasing dedication to his work, Holes’ life has not gone by without a slew of personal struggles. He writes about the disintegration of his first marriage as a casualty of his profession. He feels compelled to constantly ruminate over the details of his cases, much to the frustration of his wife and family, remarking that “for all [his] aptitude for analyzing crime, [he] couldn’t figure out how to be successfully married.” Not surprisingly, his first marriage fell apart, and while his second wife works in a similar field, Holes admits there are still challenges due to his compulsions and the almost gravitational pull he feels toward his work. He ends the book with the hope that he has become more self-aware and reflective of his own shortcomings, to better understand the needs of his family.

I enjoyed the fact that this book was both introspective and informative about the role of a detective in solving cold cases. It strikes the perfect balance between personal history and an enthralling glimpse into the world of forensics and detective work.

Emily Kosowicz
If It Sounds Like a Quack

On April 20, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., Matthew Hongoltz-Hetling (“A Libertarian Walks Into a Bear”) visits Gibson’s Bookstore, on 45 S Main St, in Concord to present a bizarre, rollicking trip through the world of fringe medicine, filled with leeches, baking soda IVs, and, according to at least one person, zombies, with his new book “If It Sounds Like a Quack...: A Journey to the Fringes of American Medicine!” It’s no secret that American health care has become too costly and politicized to help everyone. So where do you turn if you can’t afford doctors, or don’t trust them? In this book, Hongoltz-Hetling examines the growing universe of non-traditional treatments.

CYPN Earth Day Hike

Join Concord Young Professionals Network (CYPN) and Five Rivers Conservation Trust for an Earth Day hike and trail clean up, on April 22, from 1 to 3 p.m. This is a great opportunity to build professional connections and community friendships while doing our part for Earth Day. Enjoy the company of fellow YPs for an easy and educational walk to explore the Armstrong Forest Preserve in Concord. Our goal is to collect debris, trash and recycling as we enjoy Earth Day together!

Suggested Items To Bring: Trash bag, gloves, hand sanitizer, bug spray, snacks, waters and any required medication for an outdoor activity.

Location: The Armstrong Forest Preserve is located on Stickney Hill Rd in Concord directly across from the Exit 3 ramp from I-89 North. This ramp is only accessible to northbound traffic.

History of farming as told by barns

Barns can tell us a great deal about the history of agriculture in New Hampshire. In the colonial period, New Hampshire was a rural, agrarian state and small subsistence farms dotted the landscape. An important part of these farmsteads was the barn, which housed animals and stored crops. Early barns used traditional building methods and followed the English barn style, with a low pitched roof and doors under the eaves. As time went on, the farms expanded to accommodate changes in agriculture.

This presentation will follow the progression of barn styles that evolved to handle the increased productivity required to meet the needs of a growing population and respond to changes in society caused by the railroad and the Industrial Revolution. Join John C. Porter, author of Preserving Old Barns: Preventing the Loss of a Valuable Resource, on April 20, at 7 p.m. at the Pembroke Town Library, 313 Pembroke St., as he will demonstrate how these majestic barn structures represent Yankee ingenuity, hard work, and skilled craftsmanship, as well as providing a link to our past that adds to the state’s scenic beauty. This event is hosted by the Pembroke Historical Society, and for more information, contact Sarah Hyland, at 603-566-1031.

Brewing in New Hampshire

Glenn Knoblock explores the fascinating history of New Hampshire’s beer and ale brewing industry from Colonial days, when it was home- and tavern-based, to today’s modern breweries and brewpubs. Unusual and rare photos and advertisements document this changing industry and the state’s earliest brewers, including the renowned Frank Jones. A number of lesser-known brewers and breweries that operated in the state are also discussed, including the only brewery owned and operated by a woman before the modern era. Illustrations present evidence of society’s changing attitudes towards beer and alcohol consumption over the years. Whether you’re a beer connoisseur or a “teetotaler”, this lecture will be enjoyed by adults of all ages. The event will be held at the Epsom Public Library, 1606 Dover Rd., on April 24, at 6:30 p.m. For more information, contact the Epsom Public Library at 603-763-9920.
Read the paper without the paper

Ask any group how they like to get their news, and the chorus of responses will sound something like this: “Website. Phone. Paper. Facebook. Newsletters. Podcasts. Friends.” We’re increasingly hearing “E-Edition” added to the list, and with good reason. A growing number of our readers think the e-edition – which is more easily defined as a digital replica of our paper – serves as a valuable bridge between the traditional benefits of a newspaper and the technical advantages of our online world. For the many who still don’t quite know what it is, we’re taking this time to introduce you to our e-edition, where you can get the day’s news – or the news of the past month – in a newspaper format that’s meant to feel familiar.

OH, ALL THE BUTTONS!

HOW YOU WANT IT: Use to adjust settings for viewing. You can choose a single or double click to zoom, lock the article view or open more settings for a new window of options.

QUICK GLANCE: A thumbnail view of the entire paper, broken down into sections. From this view you can download individual or groups of pages. This is helpful if you want to email something or print.

SECTIONS: No matter where you are, this brings you to the main menu of the paper and allows you to quickly go to the section you want.

SETUP: Use to log out or manage your account.

GO BACK IN TIME: This will give you a thumbnail view of the past 30 editions of the Monitor. Once you click the thumbnail, you’ll be able to view that day’s full edition.

FIND IT FAST: Remember seeing a story or advertisement, but can’t remember what issue it was in? This feature allows you to search and view one month of any type of content by keyword, content type or date without having to open up an individual edition.

FAQs: A page of frequently asked questions. Some examples: “How do I print puzzles and other content?” and “Can I print the article I’m viewing, or share it with someone else?”

ALERTS: You can submit your email and receive an alert when an article is posted with a specific search term. If you get the alert, you can unsubscribe from here, too.

ADJUST: This resizes the page view to fit your browser window.

WHAT DEVICES

GET THERE FROM OUR SITE OR OUR APP
You can view it from a smartphone, a tablet or a desktop. For the desktop version, just go to concordmonitor.com and select “E-edition” in the top-right corner. To view on a smartphone or tablet, you’ll first have to download the free app. To get it, go to the Apple Store or Google Play and search for “Concord Monitor.” Either way, the full digital replica of the paper will arrive as usual by 6 a.m.

LED Streetlights

Unitil, a provider of natural gas and electricity to customers in New England, recently completed work with the City of Concord to convert more than 2,000 streetlights from traditional bulbs to more efficient LED lighting in an effort to reduce energy usage and lower operational costs.

The city took advantage of cost-saving incentives available for the multi-year project, including a unique approach involving street-by-street audits to custom design lighting specifically for each neighborhood. This design strategy resulted in low-level lighting for residential neighborhoods and higher levels of lighting for commercial and high traffic areas.

The incentives were offered through NHsaves – a collaboration of New Hampshire’s electric and natural gas utilities working together to provide customers with information, incentives, and support designed to save energy, reduce costs, and protect the environment statewide.

“We’re pleased that we were able to work with the city on this exciting project, which is significant and will come with many benefits,” said Alec O’Meara, External Affairs Manager at Unitil. “Not only will the new lighting lower operational costs for the city, but the upgrade will lead to reduced energy consumption and carbon emissions, less maintenance, and improved overall lighting that is more neighborhood appropriate.”

The project involved re-placing a total of 2,050 streetlights – the largest conversion in Unitil’s New Hampshire service territory. The move to LED streetlights, which are rated for a 20-year life span, is expected to reduce the city’s energy usage by 672,364 kilowatt hours annually, resulting in an estimated carbon emission reduction of 551.6 tons per year. As a result of the new lighting, the city is projected to save more than $700,000 on energy costs over a 10-year period, with the potential for additional savings in the future as advanced control systems are introduced and installed.

Grants

On April 6, the New Hampshire Community Development Finance Authority awarded the City two $500,000 Community Development Block Grants (CDBG) – one for Housing and one for Public Facilities. The Housing CDBG grant will support the Concord Coalition to End Homelessness in the acquisition of 6 South State Street which will create eight affordable one-bedroom apartments for persons exiting homelessness. The Public Facilities CDBG grant will support the Crisis Center of Central New Hampshire (CCCNH) in the acquisition of 27 Warren Street for programmatic office space to support victims of domestic violence and to improve CCCNH’s ability to serve their 1,500 clients. Both projects benefit primarily low- and moderate-income persons. Since the beginning of the City’s participation with New Hampshire’s CDBG program in 1975, the City has been successfully awarded $25,263,132.

Earth Day Hike

Celebrate Earth Day out on the trail. Join Concord Trails on April 22 at 9:30 a.m. at the Swope Park Trails, dedicated to Marjory Swope, one of Concord’s greatest advocates for conservation and the environment. Meet at the trailhead parking lot at Long Pond Road. the hike is about 1.5 miles, expect to take about an hour. Map 25 at concordnh.gov/trails. For more information, email bfenster-macher@concordnh.gov.

Arbor Day

Modern Woodmen have donated trees to be planted at Kimball Park on April 28 at 10 a.m. in celebration of Arbor Day.

Dog License

State law requires that every owner or keeper of a dog, four months of age or older, license said dog in the municipal clerk’s office in the city or town in which the dog is kept. Licenses are effective from May 1 to April 30 of the subsequent year. The City Clerk’s Office has begun the annual dog licensing season. Historically, the annual dog license renewal process begins each April, with residents vying for tag #1. In honor of that tradition, staff has reserved tag #1 – 299, and will begin issuing those numbers...
Golf Course Open
The course opened for the 2023 season on April 12. Please call the Pro Shop at (603) 228-8954 for updates. The Pro Shop is open daily from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.
The driving range is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Indoor golf simulators are still available for rent and are open seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Hydrant Flushing
Hydrant flushing started on April 10. For the next several weeks, crews will be going to different areas of the city to flush hydrants as part of required routine maintenance of the City’s water distribution system. This annual practice flushes out any naturally occurring sediment from the pipes in the system, and helps to maintain Concord’s water quality, check water pressure of the area, and ensure proper operation of distribution system components.

Depending on the location, flushing will typically start between 4:30 and 6:30 a.m. and continue through 3 p.m. each weekday.
Water customers may experience low water pressure or discoloration when hydrant flushing occurs in their area. If discoloration occurs, customers are advised to run their tap water on cold until the water runs clear. Customers are advised to avoid doing laundry during their scheduled flushing times.

Hydrant flushing schedules and more information are available on the City’s website at concordnh.gov/springoperations.

Leaf pick-up
Concord residents with curbside trash collection can begin placing leaves at the curb starting April 24, for the return of the City of Concord’s Spring Leaf Collection.
All leaves must be in biodegradable yard waste bags or rigid containers labeled for leaves. In the spring, leaves must be bagged or contained for easy pick-up with trash collection. Leaves raked loosely to the curb are collected only in the fall.

Leaf collection will continue for six weeks through June 3. The last collection week will be delayed by one day, with no trash or leaf collection on May 29, for the Memorial Day holiday.

Residents can also bring leaves to Gelinas Excavation & Earth Materials Recycling Center at 10 Intervale Road, off of Fort Eddy Road, once they open April 17. Drop-off is free with proof of residency for loads smaller than a non-commercial pick-up truck. Residents are required to empty contents at the facility to confirm that loads are 100% free of any unacceptable materials. Bags are not required for drop-off. Any containers used for transporting leaves to the recycling center must return with the resident.

Find more information about the City’s spring leaf collection at concordnh.gov/leafcollection.

The Concord Mom Prom returns on May 5 at the Grappone Conference Center starting at 7 p.m.

Not just for moms, all ladies are welcomed to attend this fundraiser for Hearts for Kindness. Tickets are $50.

Bring your friends to this fiesta-themed dance event to raise money for your community! Tickets include light appetizers, music, raffles and surprises, dancing, photobooth and a late night goodie bag.

Each person must purchase a ticket for entry. Coming with a group? Add a table reservation for ten people for $125 in addition to your ticket purchase to ensure you can sit together. Seating is limited to reserved tables so that we have more room to dance!

The Concord Mom Prom will help to fill the needs of so many children and families in our local communities. Since 2019, Hearts for Kindness financial assistance programs have helped over 200 families and individuals keep warm, kept roofs over their heads, coats on their backs and food in their bellies. In fact, over the last 8 years, we have distributed more than $130,000 to people in need, nearly $85,000 since 2019.

Hearts for Kindness expenses are very minimal with no location overhead and an all-volunteer board, 100% of the donations received go right back out to support the mission. Together we can make a difference!

Tickets can be reserved at eventbrite.com/e/2023-concord-mom-prom-tickets-556182977257. Learn more about Hearts for Kindness at hearts-forkindness.com.

Hearts for Kindness is a local grass-roots organization with a mission to promote community and hope. We assist families in the greater Concord area in three ways: First, through acts of kindness that bring people together within the community. Secondly, through limited financial assistance to help with emergency expenses when no other funding exists. Third, through special fundraising efforts for families or individuals with a greater need.

Concord Mom Prom, our largest fundraiser of the year, is a unique ladies-only event in which women wear themed outfits, their old prom gowns, bridesmaids’ dresses, or any old (or new) cocktail dress and dance the night away, have fun with friends, but most importantly, raise funds for a worthy cause. SERVING NH FOR OVER 20 YEARS

1922 - 2022
Club of Concord, NH
Celebrating a Century of Service

For More Info and Application:
April 20, 1965: Concord Police Chief Walter Carlson reports that the city’s population is up by 219 adults and 20 minors over 1964. The report also reveals there are 62 more dogs in the city this year than last.

April 21, 2002: Last year, the state’s nursing schools turned out 150 graduates, the Monitor reports. At least 500 nurses were needed to fill the spaces that had opened up. And if the trend continues, the consequences for the state’s health care system will be severe, according to Mike Hill of the New Hampshire Hospital Association.

April 21, 1789: When John Adams arrives at Federal Hall in New York after being elected the nation’s first vice president, he is greeted by John Langdon of New Hampshire, president pro tempore of the Senate. There is as yet no oath of office for the vice president, so Langdon simply escorts Adams to his seat at the head of the chamber.

April 21, 1881: At 6 p.m., a small closed car drawn by a horse leaves Abbot & Downing shops for Fosterville. The ride ushers in the era of trolleys in Concord. The cars, made by Abbot & Downing, will carry 200,000 people in their first year of operation.

April 22, 1861: Meeting at the South Congregational
Church, a group of Concord women organizes an effort to supply soldiers with “articles necessary to their comfort in the field.” They have raised $200 and resolve to spend $150 on flannel for shirts for the First New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry Regiment.

April 22, 1947: John Harrigan is born in Littleton. Harrigan will become a reporter for the Nashua Telegraph and the New Hampshire Sunday News before taking over as publisher of both the Coos County Democrat and the News and Sentinel of Colebrook. When reporters, both near and far, are looking for the voice of the North Country, they will often turn to Harrigan.

April 22, 1995: Poet Jane Kenyon dies of leukemia at her home in Wilmot.

April 23, 2003: The state’s first criminal trial of a priest named in the clergy sexual abuse scandal ends in a mistrial after the jury deliberated nearly 14 hours over three days without reaching a verdict. One juror says that all 12 jurors believed that the Rev. George Robichaud was guilty of rape and attempted rape but that two jurors were unwilling to convict him because conflicting testimony questioned whether Robichaud’s accuser was a minor at the time.

April 23, 2001: Kimballs Country Store in Pembroke gets a quirky piece of notoriety thanks to some number-crunching from the 2000 census. New Hampshire’s population centroid – or that point around which there is an equal concentration of the state’s population in every direction – is inside the store.

April 23, 1945: So far, it appears that Mrs. John Maken of Manchester will be the state’s entry in a national contest aimed at identifying the mother with the most children in the service. Nine sons and a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Maken have been in uniform.

April 24, 1992: The Concord Monitor publishes its last afternoon edition. Henceforth it will be a morning paper.

April 24, 1853: Miffed that Franklin Pierce, now president, has relegated him to a lowly clerical job, Benjamin Brown French reminisces in his journal about the early days of their friendship. In 1831, on the way to serve in the New Hampshire House, the two met in Hopkinton, Pierce on horseback, French in a chaise. In Concord, “we took rooms at Gass’s Eagle Hotel, nearly opposite each other, & then commenced a friendship that has been, on my part, almost an affection. From that day to this I have not wronged Frank Pierce in thought, word or deed.”

April 24, 1847: The Portsmouth Journal reports that neither the 40-year-old federal prohibition on the slave trade nor the ships built in the Portsmouth Navy Yard for the African Squadron have managed to stop the wholesale capture of Blacks in Africa. “So expeditiously do the fast sailing vessels employed in the slave trade manage their business,” the paper reports, “that they will run into some inlet, where four hours suffice for them to take in wood, water, and several hundred slaves.”

April 24, 1900: Harriet P. Dame dies in Concord at the age of 85. She was renowned for having ventured south with the 2nd New Hampshire Infantry Regiment during the Civil War. She served as a nurse and helpmate to the soldiers and was captured at Bull Run.

April 26, 1948: On the first day of spring vacation, Concord students take to the streets of downtown brandishing placards. Their cause: a new swimming pool in West Concord. The state Board of Health closed the old one as unsanitary in 1945, and a committee of the city’s alderman has recommended against spending $110,000 to build a new one.

April 27, 2001: Observers of Lake Winnipesaukee are still waiting to declare ice-out – the point at which the Mount Washington cruise ship can make all its ports of call. Last year ice-out was declared April 10.

April 27, 1987: U.S. Rep. Bob Smith is among a group offering a $1 million reward to any Southeast Asian defector who frees an American POW.

April 27, 1861: The city of Concord appropriates $10,000 to aid the families of local volunteers who go off to war. It expects the state to reimburse it, and for the most part it will. By the end of the year, the city will have doled out $3,000 to soldiers’ families.

April 27, 1977: Gov. Meldrim Thomson says a planned protest at the Seabrook nuclear plant site is “cover for terrorist activity,” adding: “Once the demonstrators occupy the site, they do not plan to leave alive.”

April 27, 1987: Fire breaks out in the south end of the Legislative Office Building in Concord. Hundreds gather to watch as a cool wind whips the flames pouring from the roof. Water streams out the door and down the steps into the street. The building suffers extensive smoke and water damage.

Meet the CASL Class of 2023

Thirty-four students from eight area schools graduated from Capital Area Student Leadership (CASL) in March 2023. CASL is an immersive program that encourages students to learn more about their community, and their own unique skills and strengths as leaders. Presented by the Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce, and generously underwritten by Northeast Delta Dental, CASL has been in existence for more than 25 years, graduated over 700 leaders, and is the only regional student leadership program in the state. Enrolled students learn about Concord’s history and inner-workings, gain hands-on experience in public speaking and other leadership skills, and meet professionals from a variety of industries who are actively involved in the Greater Concord community. The Chamber is proud to introduce you to the CASL Class of 2023. A selection of students are highlighted in this issue of the Concord Insider; view future issues to meet all of this year’s program graduates.

What is one word that describes you? Inspiring
What is something you want to learn more about? I would love to learn more about the history of New Hampshire. I am a big history fanatic, and I love learning about how humans and culture and our society in general came to be.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? Bernie Sanders because he is a liberal, and so am I. He is from Vermont which is known for its agriculture and wildlife which Mr. Sanders is a big supporter of and I appreciate the work he does.

Adam Valpey
Bow High School
What is one word that describes you? Social
What is something you want to learn more about? Something that I would like to learn more about is the art of conversation and public speaking. I am a firm believer in the power of words, and I want to improve my skills in communication and networking. In my opinion, these skills are extremely applicable to many instances. Additionally, it is a skill you can use and carry with you for the rest of your life. I hope to improve through applying myself and practicing an extraverted outlook on life.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? My grandfather who passed away in 2019. He is a huge inspiration to me, and will forever be someone I look up to.

What is one word that describes you?
Hopeful
What is something you want to learn more about? Physics and chemistry have always been my favorite subjects. I would like to be able to apply that knowledge to find out if things in Sci-Fi are true, such as the Multiverse Theory.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? Neil de Grasse Tyson. He’s honestly one of the coolest guys I’ve ever watched. He is funny and incredibly intelligent. He knows a lot of my favorite subjects so I would ask him so many questions.

Addy Kimball
Merrimack Valley High School
What is one word that describes you? Funky!
What is something you want to learn more about? I want to learn more about music and other countries by traveling.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? Harry Styles so we could become best friends and he could tell me what happened between him and Taylor Swift.

Alexander King

What is something you want to learn more about? How to evolve mental health services for high schoolers so that they can become healthy, happy adults.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? My previous guidance counselor and tennis coach, Ms. Perrault. She showed me the opportunity I have to make a positive impact in my community through kindness, friendships, and leadership. I hope I’ll inspire others the way she inspires me.

Azra Akcan
Concord High School
What is one word that describes you? Observant
What is something you want to learn more about? I want to learn how to communicate with others that are vastly different than me. Because, I don’t want to live in my own bubble and I want to be versatile.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? It would be Mitski. She’s a Japanese-American singer and songwriter that writes about her struggles with mental health, her hardships with being Japanese-American, and many more. Her songs are some of the most beautiful music I’ve heard all my life. I would love to speak with her about anything: her songs, her life, to talk to her even briefly would be truly wonderful.
Bryana Szepan
Bow High School
What is one word that describes you? Strong-minded
What is something you want to learn more about? I want to learn more about kinesiology. I think it is fascinating how different muscles move and interact with each other, and how they can be recovered if injured.
If you could spend the day with one person, who would it be and why? Sue Bird. I want to learn how she leads her team to many titles. I also want to talk to her about her experiences throughout her collegiate and professional careers.

Cam Carter

Another Crossroads Success Story

BEFORE
I have had back trouble since high school — and was just living with it. After my first adjustment I felt like a totally different person. I hopped right off the table and immediately noticed a difference in my back as well as my breathing. — Laurie S.

HEALING
I had a lot of neck and back pain from a bad fall that I took 10 years ago. I decided to try chiropractic for my pain since physical therapy had not helped. After getting adjusted for a couple months my pain was much less — the longer I came to be adjusted the better I felt. — Elizabeth W.

Congratulations Ashley P.
April Practice Member of the Month

Loss of the normal cervical lordosis (ideal forward curve in the neck) is associated with an increased risk of arthritis, degenerative disc disease and secondary conditions such as neck pain, tight muscles and headaches.

This month we congratulate Ashley on her commitment to improving the structure of her spine through corrective chiropractic adjustments at Crossroads! Are you well-adjusted? Find out what chiropractic can do for you. Call us today to schedule your initial visit.
