book of the week

Woman in the Water

Charles Finch (292 pages, historical mystery, 2018)

This is a prequel to the Charles Lenox mystery series. Charles, the younger son of a baronet, loves solving puzzles and wants to become a detective. But in his world being a detective is like being a policeman, and is frowned on by his social class. People are starting to avoid him – unless they need his services as a detective!

The story takes place in London in 1805. A London newspaper receives an anonymous letter from someone who claims to have committed the “perfect crime,” one that the police won’t ever be able to solve. Not only that, but the villain promises that in one month they will commit another murder! A young woman’s body is found in a naval trunk. The London press is stirring up alarm about the murder with the public, and the police are not making any progress in solving the case. They reluctantly accept when Charles offers to help.

Charles has many things on his plate. He is dealing with a demanding new housekeeper, Mrs. Huggins, and the fact that his best friend Elizabeth, whom he loves, has married another man! Also, his mother is coming to London to speak to him but won’t reveal why ahead of time. But above all, Charles must use all his wits to discover a cunning murderer who boasts that they will commit another crime soon! This mystery has a wonderful sense of place and lots of details about how the upper class lived in the early 1800s. There are also moments of humor and poignant visits with Charles’ family. And towards the end there is a thrilling race across London when Charles finds out that the person he loves most is threatened! If you like lots and twists and turns, an intelligent amateur detective, and a maniacal murderer, you should try this mystery!

history

Oct. 26, 2001: Patricia Cloutier of Concord, believed to be a founder of Classy Touch Enterprises, a Penacook prostitution business, turns herself in at police headquarters. According to police, Cloutier founded the business with Amy Sullivan and allegedly ran the business out of Sullivan's home.

Oct 26, 1988: State officials break ground for the $1.8 million Christa McAuliffe Planetarium in Concord.

Oct. 27, 1908: A throng fills Concord's Phenix Hall with hundreds standing as the state's two U.S. senators campaign for the November election. "What a whirlwind (Sen. Joseph) Gallinger is for incessant work, work, work," Charles Corning, the city's mayor and the emcee for the night, writes in his diary.

Oct. 27, 1951: State Sen. Winnifred Julia Wild marries state Sen. George Wesley Tarlson - right in the Senate chamber.

Oct. 28, 1906: The New York World reports that Mary Baker Eddy of Concord is mentally and physically unfit to lead the 800,000-member Christian Science church, which she founded. Eddy is 85 years old. "Mrs. Eddy looked more dead than alive," wrote two reporters who had never seen her. Mayor Charles Corning visits Eddy after hearing this account and finds her "keen of intellect and strong in memory. A surprising example of longevity, bright eyes, emphatic expression."

Oct. 29, 1795: Concord Bridge, the town's first span across the Merrimack, opens with a party and parade. It is near the site of today's Manchester Street bridge. A second toll bridge will be built to East Concord in

Oct. 29, 1792: The first issue of The Mirror is published in Concord. The cost: 5 shillings per year.

Oct. 30, 1862: Twenty-five Black sailors from the USS Minnesota arrive in Portsmouth. The ship has come north after being damaged in the Merrimack-Monitor duel at Hampton Roads, Va. The young ladies of Portsmouth step up to help the formerly enslaved men learn to read, and townspeople gather to hear their views on slavery and secession and to hear them sing gospel songs.

NH, for more than thirty years. Yankee humorist Fred Marple has appeared on New Hampshire Chronicle, on the radio, at town halls, church basements, and the homes of most of his friends, usually right around dinner time. Fred's humor columns have appeared in Yankee Magazine, New Hampshire Magazine, and many others. For more information, visit walkerlecture.org.

A Taste of the Old Country in NH

Manchester is one example of the many industrial cities that attracted immigrants from Quebec in numbers large enough to warrant the creation and maintenance of an infrastructure of religious, educational, social, cultural, and commercial institutions that helped preserve this community's language and traditions. Robert Perreault shares stories on Thursday, Oct. 26, at 6:30 p.m., at the Dunbarton Public Library on 1004 School Street in Dunbarton about life in one of America's major Franco-American centers. For more information, contact the Dunbarton Public Library at 603-774-3546.

First Friday event

Intown Concord is thrilled to announce a highly anticipated Art Walk event taking place during the upcoming First Friday, Nov. 3, from 4 to 8 p.m.

Bank of NH Stage: Experience the captivating world of Saad Hindal, an Iraqi artist whose colorful vision vividly captures Concord's community. Don't miss Ahmad Gazelle's exquisite pottery display during the event and Batulo's Kitchen's delicious Somali cuisine available for purchase.

Concord Arts Market (Bi-centennial Square): Delight in the works of over 20 local artists at the pop up. Brian Burnout will perform from 4-5 p.m.

Concord Community Music School (23 Wall St): Enjoy a Faculty Showcase Recital at 7 p.m, featuring an eclectic mix of musical genres, including classical, folk, and blues. Admission is free.

NH Art Association (49 S. Main St, Chamber office): The Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce will host the 'Magical Realism' exhibition by artist William Turner, showcasing playful depictions of vintage toys in vibrant, imaginative settings.

League of New Hampshire Craftsmen (49 S. Main St): Visit the League's Gallery and discover the 'Connecting Through Craft' exhibitions.

Pillar Gallery Projects (205 N. State St): Explore the 'Flora & Fauna' exhibitions.

Pompanoosuc Mills (38 N. Main St): Join Pompanoosuc Mills' featured artists, Jess Barnett, Michelle Motuzas, Helen Fitzgerald, Elsa Voelcker, and Tanya Hayes Lee, as they present their stunning creations for sale.

Viking House (19 N. Main St): Witness artist Mike Driscoll's live painting session.

Wine on Main (9 N. Main St): Indulge in a complimentary wine tasting event from 5-7 p.m. Also, Lisa Devos from La Mia Mano Jewelry will present her stunning handcrafted jewelry pieces.

For more details, visit intownconcord.org.

Read the paper without the paper

Ask any group how they like to get their news, and the chorus of responses will sound something like this: “Website. Phone. Paper. Facebook. Newsletters. Podcasts. Friends.” We’re increasingly hearing “E-Edition” added to the list, and with good reason. A growing number of our readers think the e-edition – which is more easily defined as a digital replica of our paper – serves as a valuable bridge between the traditional benefits of a newspaper and the technical advantages of our online world. For the many who still don’t quite know what it is, we’re taking this time to introduce to you our e-edition, where you can get the day’s news – or the news of the past month – in a newspaper format that’s meant to feel familiar.

OH, ALL THE BUTTONS!

HOW YOU WANT IT: Use to adjust settings for viewing. You can choose a single or double click to zoom, lock the article view or open more settings for a new window of options.

QUICK GLANCE: A thumbnail view of the entire paper, broken down into sections. From this view you can download individual or groups of pages. This is helpful if you want to email something or print.

SECTIONS: No matter where you are, this brings you to the main menu of the paper and allows you to quickly go to the section you want.

SETUP: Use to log out or manage your account.

GO BACK IN TIME: This will give you a thumbnail view of the past 30 editions of the Monitor. Once you click the thumbnail, you'll be able to view that day's full edition.

FIND IT FAST: Remember seeing a story or advertisement, but can't remember what issue it was in? This feature allows you to search and view one month of any type of content by keyword, content type or date without having to open up an individual edition.

FAQs: A page of frequently asked questions. Some examples: “How do I print puzzles and other content?” and “Can I print the article I'm viewing, or share it with someone else?”

ALERTS: You can submit your email and receive an alert when an article is posted with a specific search term. If you get the alert, you can unsubscribe from here. too.

IN YOUR CONTROL

Sheet icon: Toggle between replica view and plain text view; A – and A + icons: Decrease or increase size.

ACCESS OPTIONS

The speaker translates to text to speech; From here, you can select the printer icon or the share icon to send by Twitter or email.

NAVIGATION OPTIONS The left and right arrows allow you jump quickly scroll from one story to the next. The middle button sends you to the index so you can easily select any story no matter where it is in the paper.

CAN I GET SOME HELP?

YES, WE'RE HERE TO HELP

If you're having trouble with setup, visit our site at concordmonitor.com/Reader-Services/FAQ for some video and written instructions on how to activate your digital subscription and how to navigate the e-edition. If that hasn't answered your question, email news@cmonitor.com.

HOW TO GET IT

JUMP RIGHT IN

Are you a print or digital-only subscriber? If so, you already have access. Now, you just need to sign in. You can do so from the Subscribe button atop our website. Others can follow that same link to set up a subscription.

To access it, just select E-Edition at the top of concordmonitor.com.

WHAT DEVICES

GET THERE FROM OUR SITE OR OUR APP

You can view it from a smartphone, a tablet or a desktop. For the desktop version, just go to concordmonitor.com and select “E-edition” in the top-right corner. To view on a smartphone or tablet, you'll first have to download the free app. To get it, go to the Apple Store or Google Play and search for “Concord Monitor.” Either way, the full digital replica of the paper will arrive as usual by 6 a.m.

DOES YOUR SPINE HAVE SUBLUXATIONS?

Misalignments in the spine are called SUBLUXATIONS. They happen when your body can't adapt to stressors, injuries, impacts and microtraumas like prolonged sitting at a computer. These subluxations cause dysfunction of the muscles, joints and nerves and can be a source of pain, postural shifts and unwanted health conditions.
