2025: THE BEST OF THE CAPITAL AREA

ROLL OUT THE RED CARPET

Welcome to the 15th year of The Cappies, our annual effort to capture your voice on the tastiest food, the best businesses and the places to turn when you need something fixed – now. We can tell by the number of people who take the time to cast their votes that they enjoy the annual survey, and we’re confident they’ll pore through this issue. It seems like each year, this regional “Best Of” contest gets a little bit bigger. That was true again this year. As a local media company that works with hundreds of businesses, we understand as well as anyone what a healthy, vibrant local economy means to our region. So, use this listing to see whether your favorite spots made it to the list, but also a guide to where you may turn for your next purchase, your next meal or your next call.

No Monkey Business Dog Training LLC

HELEN ST. PIERRE CPDT-KSA, CDBC, OSCC

78 Regional Drive, Concord NH

No matter what type of behavior question a client casually throws in at the end of a consult, my answer is always the same.

"How do I get her to stop following the cat around?"

"This wouldn't have happened if she came when I called her back. How do I get her to come back to me?"

"He keeps attacking his sister and she's just sitting there. Tell me how to make them finally get along."

"How can I get him to leave the porcupines alone?!"

"My Labrador won't stop eating socks."

"Call No Monkey Business Dog Training".

Having that simple answer for the full range of mundane to insane behavior questions gives me an immense sense of relief. I can point my clients in the direction of excellent help, and I don't have to fix a complex behavior issue in addition to whatever complex medical issue I'm working up.

I know NMBDT very well and trust them implicitly; in part because I send everyone I know there and get to see my friends and families dogs grow and improve with NMBDT's help. However, I've also spent countless hours at NMBDT classes and private sessions with my own dogs. I have well rounded balanced family dogs, who also happen to be incredible and competitive athletes, because of the hours and hours I've spent with my dogs at NMBDT. I am currently raising a puppy and once again I am leaning hard into the things NMBDT has taught me, and their classes, in order to raise a calm well rounded dog in an intentional and balanced way.

Oakley (yellow) was found as a puppy living under a car on an abandoned property in Georgia. We adopted him in February 2020 shortly before the pandemic started. Unfortunately his rough start in life combined with being a COVID puppy resulted in some pretty severe reactivity and anxiety. I remember our first classes with Helen, he would bark and lunge at every person or dog within 10 feet of him. Through working with the team at NMBDT we have been able to get Oakley to a much better place with his reactivity and anxiety. He goes to daycare, can walk downtown, and he has discovered a love for trick training and footwork activities.

Indy (black) was born in a foster home in Georgia before going to a rescue in Florida and then coming to a shelter in NH. I foster failed her after bringing her home at 10 months old. Indy has some anxiety around new people and places. Once she's comfortable she's a ball of energy and will parkour off of furniture (and the walls, and your face). We've taken multiple classes with NMBDT to work on creating good manners and help her learn to manage her anxiety in new situations. We also just finished control unleashed level one to work on our impulse control.

Every single person that we have interacted with at NMBDT, both staff and other clients, have been nothing but helpful and inviting. Staff have always tailored each lesson to what each dog needs in the moment during group classes to ensure every dog gets as much benefit as they can. Finding NMBDT has truly been life changing, both for my dogs and for me as a dog owner and I will forever be thankful for finding such a welcoming, knowledgeable dog community.

When we got 2 beagle puppies everyone told us we were crazy. They said they would only bond to each other, be stubborn and untrainable. Katie at no monkey business said that was nonsense. It would be a little extra work but completely doable. She guided us, never judged us and we ended up with two sweet, well behaved, amazing, lovable dogs!

We adopted Gracie over 9 years ago. She was found under a porch with her 5 puppies (who all were adopted). We fell in love with her story and pictures, so we brought her home. We wanted to teach her positive reinforcement training, so we entered Helen and NMBDT's class and not only was it rewarding and informative, but it was so much fun. 9 years later, we are still using the tools Helen taught us. Anytime we say "wait" Gracie stops in her tracks and looks to us for guidance. Anytime we pass a dog on our walks, we say "yes" and she gets a cookie. The most valuable tool we were taught was that "your training never ends." Gracie is now 11 years old and we will always be grateful for the tools we learned and will never stop "training."

Private consultations with Helen changed our life with Pippi! We learned so much about her unique needs and how to meet them. The change in her happiness, comfort, and well being was very quick and long lasting as we integrated what we learned in our sessions. We love NMBDT for the simplicity and practicality of their methods in helping us and our dogs learn new skills and improve our relationship.

I don't even know where to begin - working with Helen, Katie, Josie, and Jae has been nothing short of life changing. From assisting us with lifestyle management to reactivity... Ash is now living his best life because of their expertise, nonjudgmental guidance, and support for us. Ash and I absolutely adore and appreciate each one of you!

PS - thank you for being incredibly attentive and caring when Ash boards with you!! He comes back home perfectly content and not stressed... dare I say it's a vacation for him, too?!

We love NMBDT! Every single class, consult, and call has been invaluable to our family. Every step of the way, we have known that we have somewhere to turn with questions or concerns. The learning is so personalized, even in the group class setting. We went from having a dog who couldn't function outside of the house to having a dog who loves to walk downtown, shop in dog-friendly stores, and even play with some other dogs - all things we never thought would be possible. Because of the entire NMBDT team, we are better dog owners and understand Bonnie's needs and know how to set her up for success and recognize her limits before she has reached them, allowing us to give her the best life we can. Our lives, especially Bonnie's, are so much because of NMBDT and all of their services.

Why Goldsmiths Gallery Is the Best Jeweler in Concord, New Hampshire

When it comes to finding a jeweler that blends superior craftsmanship, ethical integrity, and personalized service, Goldsmiths Gallery of Concord shines brighter than any other. This local boutique has earned its reputation as the premier destination for custom jewelry in the region by embracing artistry, ethics, and intimate client relationships—all with a commitment to timeless elegance.

Goldsmiths Gallery is more than a jewelry store; it is a destination for those who appreciate wearable works of art. Each piece in the collection is thoughtfully selected or designed to harmonize with a customer's wardrobe and lifestyle.

The gallery features an exclusive selection of designers known for their commitment to innovation and quality, ensuring that every ring, necklace, and bracelet embodies a level of artistry worthy of its wearer.

Paula's unique background in fashion informs her approach to jewelry curation, ensuring that the gallery's offerings are always in tune with modern elegance while embracing timeless allure.

Paula Heath: A Designer's Journey from New York to New Hampshire

At the heart of Goldsmiths Gallery is Paula Colgan Heath, a visionary designer with an unparalleled eye for elegance. A graduate of the prestigious Parsons School of Design in New York City, Paula spent over three decades on 7th Avenue, designing breathtaking evening and daywear for renowned labels, including The Kollektion Ltd, Joan Leslie, and Maggie London Dress.

Paula's experience in the fashion industry refined her ability to understand form, texture, and style—a skill that now defines her approach to fine jewelry. Returning to her hometown of Concord in 2005, Paula brought her keen design sensibilities to the world of jewelry.

Paula's tenure as Gallery Manager at Mark Knipe Goldsmiths deepened her appreciation for the art of fine jewelry, inspiring her to open Goldsmiths Gallery in 2017. Since then, she has curated a collection that blends sophistication, individuality, and artistic excellence.

Thank You For All The Votes!

Eric Janelle: A Master Goldsmith & Creative Partner

Paula's collaborator at Goldsmiths Gallery is Eric Janelle, a highly skilled goldsmith and designer with over twenty-five years of experience. Known for his superb wax carvings and innovative design techniques, Eric specializes in custom jewelry design and fabrication.

Over the years, he has honed his ability to blend traditional craftsmanship with contemporary aesthetics, creating jewelry that is both timeless and unique. His expertise in metalwork allows him to develop intricate and highly personalized designs, making each piece a true work of art.

At Goldsmiths Gallery, Eric works closely with Paula to craft one-of-a-kind creations that reflect the individuality of their clients. His passion for craftsmanship and attention to detail ensure that every piece he creates is of the highest quality, designed to be cherished for a lifetime.

Each piece in the Goldsmiths Gallery collection serves as a heartfelt tribute, making for a truly unforgettable occasion.

- Alex Sepkus' Gold and Diamond Bands
Delicately detailed, these handcrafted bands symbolize the strength and continuity of a client's devotion.

- Adel Chefridi's Harmony Necklace
Featuring ethically sourced diamonds set in radiant gold, this pendant celebrates balance and connection.

- Eric Janelle's Custom Gold and Gemstone Creations – Bespoke designs that honor the uniqueness of every client and cherished memories they hold dear.

- Suna's Classic Diamond Eternity Band
A timeless representation of unbreakable bonds, perfect for marking a lifetime of love and dedication.

Truly the Best Choice in Concord

From the design table to the final polish, Goldsmiths' Gallery delivers:

- Masterful craftsmanship by recognized designers
- Deep personalization through one-on-one client collaboration
- Full maintenance services weaving continuity and trust
- Community-rooted integrity that shines through every exchange

For anyone in Concord seeking meaningful yet sophisticated jewelry, Goldsmiths' Gallery is simply the best jeweler in the area. Their artistry, values, and lasting relationships make them unmatched. When you choose them, you're choosing excellence, heart, and a connection that endures far beyond the shine.
